INTERIOR NEWS.

School, Mining and Kindred Matters From the Interior.

[From the Inland Sentinel.]

A public meeting in the interest of school matters will be held in Kamloops next Friday.

It is reported that John Merritt has struck it rich on Cherry Creek. No definite information is to hand, however.

By good authority it is alleged that a certain trader in Mission Valley has shipped nine tons of deer skins—skins of those slaughtered very largely for their hides. Who is to blame?

A meeting of the members of the Inland Agricultural Society will be held at Ashcroft on Saturday next, July 13, to arrange a prize list for the exhibition to be held in the month of October next.

Female equestrians took part in Dominion Day sports. In the ladies race, half-mile dash, 1st, gold watch, value $35; 2nd, cup, value $15. There were three entries. Snowball, ridden by Miss J. Duncan, took the lead till within about twenty yards of the wire, when Fred, ridden by Miss J. Graham, forged ahead and won the race by a head.

It is said by some of the stock raisers that on the mountains a place about 12 miles square is just covered with grasshoppers, and that they are eating the grass to the roots.

There is some agitation in Kamloops in the matter of when the schools shall re-open after the midsummer holidays. It has been suggested that September 1st is a fitting date owing to the extreme heat in August.

Thirty men are mining at Okanagan camp. There are 13 claims in the camp on which development work is being done, and all show well and promise good returns when the veins are properly opened. The owners of the Wide West claim recently refused $75,000 for the property. The latest and best strike in the camp is on the Brown Bear claim, owned by Geo. Wilkinson and others.

FATHER ENRIGHT'S CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—For some time past the tent preacher, Mr. Reid, of the Seventh Day adventists, has been informing us that we who keep the Sunday for the Sabbath have the mark of the beast, and consequently the vial of God's wrath is to be poured out upon us, and the way of escape being to keep the Saturday Sabbath—give up our membership in the different churches to which we may belong and become Seventh Day Adventists, for they alone of all the people on the earth are keeping the law of God, the ten commandments. Being the hon secretary to the "Christian Temperance Co. operative Commonwealth Colony" that is being developed on Malcolm Island in this province, and having nailed our rules (the sayings of Jesus, the sermon on the mount and the ten commandments) to the mast, I have attended most of the tent meetings and the question which is constantly being put to me is, are you going to keep the seventh day Sabbath on Malcolm Island? My reply has been in the affirmative, but I have followed this up by saying "that that seventh day is Sunday and not Saturday; that after searching everything that I thought would throw light upon the subject in the library of the British Museum, the historical evidence that I have been able to collect goes to prove conclusively that Sunday is the seventh day and not the first; and for that reason I intend to keep 'Sunday', in fact there is not an atom of historical evidence to prove that Sunday is the first day. Mr. Reid, to fortify his position, has pressed into his service the Roman Catholic Church, by quoting from a speech of Father Enright, bishop of the western diocese of the United States, delivered in the opera house, Herford, Kansas, reported in the Weekly Call of Feb. 22nd, 1884: "Christ gave the church power (says the bishop) to make laws binding upon the conscience. Show me one sect that claims or possesses the power to do so save the Catholic church. There is none, and yet all christendom acknowledges the power of the church to do so, and I will prove it to you. For example, the obedience of Sunday. How can any other denomination keep the day. The bible commands you to keep the Sabbath day. Sunday is not the seventh day. No man dares assert that it is, for the bible says as plainly as words can make it that the seventh day is the Sabbath, i.e., Saturday, for we know Sunday to be the first day of the week. Besides, we know that the Jews have been keeping the Sabbath unto the present day. I am not a rich man but I will give $1,000 to any man who will prove by the bible alone that the Sunday is the day we are bound to keep. No, it cannot be done; it is impossible. The observance of Sunday is solely a law of the Catholic church; therefore not binding upon others, the church changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and all the world bows down and worships upon that day in silent obedience to the mandates of the Catholic church. Is not this a hourly miracle that those who hate us so bitterly obey and acknowledge our power every week and do not know it? Since the Bishop has offered $1000 to any man who can prove that Sunday is the seventh day, the Sabbath, I accept the challenge on the conditions that the Seventh Day Baptist will put $1000, the Seventh Day Adventist $1000, and that the editors of the Christian press open up a subscription in their respective papers, and raise $2000; that the $5000 be placed in the hands of a literary committee to be chosen for their high standing as literary men; that if I prove conclusively that Sunday is the seventh day, that the committee will hand over the $5000 to Mayor Grant, City Hall, Victoria, for and on behalf of the "Christian Temperance Co-operative Commonwealth Colony," Malcolm Island; if, on the other hand, I can not prove that the Sunday is the seventh day, Sabbath, the money subscribed to be refunded. I should be willing for Father Enright to select six of the first rank scholars in the Catholic church to help him in the debate, and with the assistance of the Vatican library they ought to far ever settle the question. After the debate with Father Enright and his lieutenants I shall be prepared to meet in debate six representatives of the Seventh Day Baptists to discuss their chart of days (the Sabbath in 200 languages), and then I will meet, if necessary, six representatives of the Seventh Day Adventists. For my own part, I stand alone. All I ask is that I shall have a fair hearing and that the representatives of the press be allowed to take down the debate and give the world the benefit of it.

I remain very truly yours,

P. JOSEPH SPENCER.

THE SLUGGING MATCH.

Conflicting Accounts Of The Fight Between Sullivan and Kilrain.

Over Seventy Rounds Said To Have Been Fought—Honors Doubtful.

(By Postal Telegraph.)

New York, July 8—Private advices have just been received confirming the Baltimore American's special that Sullivan whipped Kilrain in eight rounds.

New Orleans, July 8—An excursion train with the fighters and their friends, is expected back here about 11:30.

Harrisburg, Miss., July 8—The ring was pitched at Richburg, Miss., at seven o'clock this morning. Richburg is a hamlet of thirty people, 25 miles from here, on the line of railroad, with no telegraphic office. Telegraphs all disturbed in this section and it is doubtful if there will be any news of the fight till the party reaches New Orleans or some other telegraph station.

New York, July 8—The Evening Telegram, Richburg, Miss., says: Sullivan won in the 9th round. A special received via Baltimore says: It is reported that Sullivan won in the 8th round. The Western Union dispatch says in the 9th round.

To Bulletin, July 8.—The Evening World's special says: The men had not entered the ring at 9 o'clock New Orleans time. This is reliable.

SULLIVAN-KILRAIN.

New Orleans, July 8—The ground selected for the fight is Richburg, Miss. The men will enter the ring at 7 o'clock at a place 105 miles from here.

Owing to the dice a tious treatment by the management of the fight the Western Union Telegraph Company has abandoned its intention of giving special facilities for telegraphing from the battlefield. The management has treated the press very shabbily and leading papers and the Press Association have been compelled to pay large prices for tickets. Reports of the fight all have to be filed in New Orleans and will be considerably delayed in consequence. The telegraph company made every effort to give the press and sporting people a good service, but the managers of the fight would not co-operate in the effort.

EXCITEMENT IN NEW YORK.

New York, July 8.—The city is much excited over the Sullivan-Kilrain fight, especially as no news is received anywhere here. Newspaper row is almost impassable with crowds around bulletin boards, and an unconfirmed rumor says Sullivan won in the 9th round.

ALL KINDS OF REPORTS.

Baltimore, July 8.—The American's special correspondent at Richburg telegraphs that Sullivan won the fight, knocking out Kilrain in the 8th round.

New Orleans, July 8, 9:35 a. m.—John L. Sullivan is again the champion of the world, having defeated Kilrain in the battle this morning.

WORSE AND MORE OF IT.

Cincinnati, July 8.—It is reported here from a reliable source that Sullivan and Kilrain are fighting at 11:45 a. m. The contest was a long one and Sullivan was having the best of it and sure to win.

New Orleans, July 8, noon.—No reliable news has yet reached here from the fight, and a report of the arrest of the principals is partially confirmed.

SULLIVAN'S FATHER CHEERED.

Boston, July 8.—Newspaper row has been packed with hundreds this forenoon and interest in bulletins from the prizering has been much greater than that displayed on the night of the prohibition election and equal to that manifested at many state elections. When the bulletin, giving the report that Sullivan won, was displayed from the bulletin boards, vast crowds swung their hats, jumped into the air and cheered. Sullivan's father, who appeared on the scene, was followed by a yelling crowd who cheered loudly when he finally took a car for home in the highlands. A crowd of men and boys followed him on a dog-trot for some distance, shouting and cheering.

Baltimore, July 8.—It is now thought the special dispatch to the American announcing Sullivan's victory was sent by New Orleans gamblers to influence betting.

PREPARING FOR THE FIGHT.

New Orleans, July 8.—The first train of twelve coaches pulled out and the conductor and engineer were given religious instruction to go straight through to the battle ground, without a stop. On the train were the chief of police of New Orleans and Commissioner of Public Buildings, and in fact most of the prominent officials of the city. The greatest difficulty was experienced by the management in keeping the people without tickets off the train. A force of detectives was provided in each car.

At the Mississippi state line there was a party of twenty-five armed men and the train was flagged, but no attention was paid to the signal and the special train dashed by at a speed of 25 miles per hour. It was just before daylight when the train got into Mississippi. The ring was pitched and everything was in readiness for the fight, which was to have taken place at 8 o'clock.

WON IN 72 ROUNDS.

New York, July 8—It is reported on good authority that Sullivan has won the fight in the 72nd round.

The Evening World correspondent wires from New Orleans, "Arrest of fighters is a foregone conclusion, fight or no fight. The railway from Richburg is closely guarded. The train was detained or stopped and searched five times."

THE LATEST.

New York, July 8—It is reported in pool rooms here by Western Union that Sullivan won in 72 rounds. Time, two hours and thirty-five minutes.

SULLIVAN WINS.

New Orleans, July 8—The fight lasted 2 hours and 18 minutes, Sullivan winning in 72 rounds. Neither man was seriously injured, but Kilrain was somewhat used up.

New York, July 8.—The New Orleans Picayune says Sullivan wins in 72 rounds.

Washington, D. C., July 8.—A private dispatch dated from Richburg, at 3 p. m. received here at 6 p. m., says the fight has just begun.

Buffalo, July 8.—Judge Stern, of the Surrogate court received a private dispatch from Richburg saying Kilrain won in 38 rounds.

TENNYSON'S HEALTH.

London, July 8.—Sir Andrew Clarke paid a visit to Tennyson at Isle of Wight and expressed surprise at the laureate's improved health and mental activity.

THE JOHNSTOWN INQUEST.

Johnstown, Pa., July 6.—Coroner Evans and a jury finished their work tonight at 9 o'clock, and in an hour rendered the following verdict: "We, the undersigned, in the inquest impanelled to investigate the cause of death of Ellen Hite, on the day of May 3rd, after hearing the testimony, found that Ellen Hite came to her death from drowning, and that the drowning was caused by the breaking of the South Fork dam. We further find from testimony, and what we saw on the ground, that there was not sufficient waste weirs, nor was the dam constructed strong enough, nor proper material used to withstand the overflow, hence we find that the owners of the said dam were culpable in not making it as secure as it should have been, especially in view of the fact that a population of many thousands were in the valley below, and we hold that the owners are responsible for the fearful loss of life and property resulting from the breaking of the dam." The verdict was a surprise to everyone, but appears to give general satisfaction to residents of this place.

A SHERIFF'S DUTY.

New York, July 8—The Press' news correspondent just arrived at New Orleans from the scene of the fight wires: "When I left the ring at 8:45 a.m., Sheriff Convart of Marion county, was about to arrest the principals and had possession of the ring. All hands were trying to induce him to defer the arrest till after the fight but the chances of success were not good.

MARINE.

San Francisco, July 8.—Arrived, steamer Wilmington from Puget Sound. Sailed Wilmington, Puget Sound; ship Ericsson for Port Townsend, and J. D. Peters for Nanaimo.

FIRE ON A FAMOUS STEAMER.

San Francisco, July 8.—The steamer Haytien Republic, which was seized and subsequently released by the Hytien government, arrived from New York last night with a cargo consigned to a San Francisco firm considerably damaged by fire in one of her coal bunkers during the voyage.

STEAD'S SPECTACULAR CAREER.

London, July 6.—Stead's spectacular career as editor of the Pall Mall Gazette is drawing to a close. His resignation has been accepted, and the change is to be made within a few months. It is understood that he has secured backing to start a new Radical morning paper in London.

SHE KNOWS HIM.

Winnipeg, July 8.—Mrs. Carbon, proprietor of the Carlton cottage, Chicago, where Dr. Cronin was murdered, has arrived here and identified Burke as the man who rented the cottage from her.

WRECKED.

San Francisco, July 8—A despatch received at the Merchants Exchange this morning says that the British schooner Colfany, from Sydney, coal laden for Eureka, went ashore yesterday. The crew were saved but the schooner is a total loss.

ARRESTED.

New Orleans, July 8—To Bulletin, New Orleans: Word has reached here from Richburg, the scene of the battle, that the authorities have interfered and that both principals are now under arrest.

Richburg, Miss., July 8—The train arrived at 5:30 a.m. and up to 9:30 this morning the men had not entered the ring.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 8—A private dispatch received here says Sullivan and Kilrain were arrested by the sheriff across the Mississippi line, and who will not allow them to return to Louisiana.

BOULANGISTS DEFEATED.

Paris, July 8—In the second ballot in the Department of Herault the Boulangerists, who were ahead a week ago but did not secure a majority, were defeated yesterday, the socialist's candidate being elected.

EARTHQUAKE.

Farmington, Me., July 8—A shock of an earthquake was plainly felt here last night, lasting half a minute, in the direction from Northwest to southeast. Dishes rattled upon shelves.

SCORE FOR THE WAR.

Vienna, July 8—It is reported here that fifty Russian officers have passed Braila, Roumania, en route down the Danube to Servia. Reports in connection with this also say it is well known that Russia has been sending materials for pontoon bridges to Reni in Bessarabia for several months past, which has caused some apprehension that an emute in Servia is imminent.

MARQUIS OF LORNE

London, July 6—It is said that the Marquis of Lorne is quite likely to be given the Victoria governorship, which, next to that of Canada, is the blue ribbon of colonial posts. The only difficulty in the way is that the Princess Louise does not want to exile herself in the Antipodes.

PASTEURISM.

London, July 6—A letter was read from the Prince of Wales at the Pasteur meeting yesterday, strongly supporting Pasteurism, and urging the universal muzzling of dogs. This strong taking sides in the controversy is exciting great antipathy, and is a new and dangerous departure. Even the Tory semi-official Standard criticizes the prince's course hostilely.

ALBERT EDWARD'S POPULARITY.

New York, July 5.—The Mail and Express' London correspondent says there can be no question about the popularity of the Prince of Wales with the masses. He is greeted with applause wherever he shows himself, and the mere announcement that he is to be at a certain place at a certain time draws immense crowds. As instance of this occurred recently. The Times and some of the old daily papers printed a couple of lines to the effect that the Prince would lunch with the Lord Mayor of London. It was on Saturday, as I passed down from the Bank of England, I saw a great crowd in front of the Mansion House. It was almost impossible for busses or carriages to proceed through the streets. A big force of London "bobbies" tried to keep the crowd in order; every window in the neighborhood also had its occupants. The crowd had stood in front of the Mansion House one hour previous to the Prince's arrival. When he alighted from his carriage he was greeted with cheers, and for three hours the crowd perspired in the hot sun until lunch was over, when the Prince drove off amid great cheers.

CHICAGO SPIES.

Have They Been Sending Grand Jury Secrets to London Times?

Chicago, July 7—The statement of Michael Davitt, cabled to this country a few days ago, to the effect that there was a connection between the London Times and the Chicago police, through which the secrets of the grand jury room in the Cronin investigation were leaking to the Thunderer, has created considerable comment in local newspaper circles. Nobody believes that the charge is true, and there is good ground for the belief that it was inspired by some of Cronin's enemies on the other side of the Atlantic. The reporter supposed to have been referred to has been in the employ of the Tribune for over fifteen years, and has distinguished himself for a greater part of that time by his opposition to Alex. Sullivan's influence in Irish affairs. The paper itself vigorously resents the insinuation that any of its staff are in the pay of the London Times, and declares that its exposure of Sullivan has been justified by the facts that are now public property.

TO THE TIMES ONLY.

The Late John Norquay To Be Given a Public Funeral at Winnipeg.

Child Burned to Death in Nova Scotia—A Journalist's Sudden Death.

(Special to The Times.)

Winnipeg, July 8.—Universal regret is expressed at the sudden death of ex-Premier Norquay. The remains will be accorded a state funeral to-day at four o'clock, the government having charge of the arrangements. The body was removed to the parliament buildings last night, and will be on view there from 10 to 4 to-day. All the members of the legislature were summoned by telegraph and it is safe to say it will be the largest funeral ever witnessed in Manitoba.

A post mortem was held and revealed the cause of death to have been a twist in the bowels in which a number of half masticated oranges had lodged. Had the doctors known the source of the trouble it is possible life might have been saved. He was insured for $14,000.

Alf Scott, nephew of Collector Scott, dropped dead on Saturday night.

J. N. Greenshields, an eminent Montreal lawyer, has arrived here to assist in the prosecution of the Burke case.

HON. FOSTER'S MARRIAGE.

Kingston, July 8.—The temperance people here are indignant over the marriage of Hon. Geo. E. Foster and Mrs Addie Chisholm. They say she cannot have a place in the W.C.T.U. of Ontario.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Halifax, July 8.—The general store and dwelling of J. J. Bird, at East Chiselcook, were burned last night. His young daughter was burned to death and the others were badly burned.

MILLERS' CONVENTION.

Toronto, July 8—The convention of millers will be held here on Tuesday and Wednesday next. It is expected it will be the largest gathering of the kind ever held in Canada.

THE GREAT ARBITRATION.

Dalhousie, N. B., July 8.—Mr. Van Horne arrived here this morning in a private car, accompanied by Hon. Edward Blake, Sanford Fleming, Judge Clark and others. They are here in connection with the closing of the Canadian Pacific in British Columbia arbitration case. Sanford Fleming will probably be called as a witness.

A WORLD'S FAIR.

Toronto, July 8.—An effort is being made to hold a world's fair here in 1892.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Paris, Ont., July 8.—N. C Jones, editor of the Star-Transcript, died suddenly of a fit of appoplexy.

FROM OTTAWA.

The Revenue from Chinese Arrivals Steadily Decreasing.

(Special to The Times.)

Ottawa, Ont., July 8—The returns received to day by the customs department from Vancouver, B. C., gives the amount collected there for Chinese arrivals for the month of June at $2,269 compared with $4,250 for the same month last year. Every month of the present year shows a decrease as compared with last year.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The Vancouver Hose Team Challenges the Victorians for $1,000.

The challenge which appears in the Victoria Times from Victoria hose team is not considered favorable by the Vancouver hose team, as we are not willing to go to the American side to compete for the championship of British Columbia. But as there appears to be considerable dissatisfaction with regard to the races run on the 1st of July, 1888, we are willing, and do hereby challenge the said Victoria team, to run the same races, dry test and hose coupling contest, to take place at Victoria and the wet test in Vancouver. The coupling contest to consist of two or three men from each team, as may be agreed upon, the aggregate time to be taken. The team winning two races out of three to be the winners of the stakes, namely, $1,000, and the championship of British Columbia. We have deposited $200 in the News-Advertiser office as a forfeit, considering $25, deposited by the Victoria team, too small an amount. Each company to select a time keeper and judge, and these to select a third. The races to take place inside of three weeks.

We remain yours, etc.

Vancouver Fire Department.

S. H. Ramsay, Sec.

Vancouver, July 5, 1889.

THE TRIGGER.

The first competition for the Dominion Rifle Association medals was held Saturday at Vancouver. If the team shooting last Monday had made the same score, the challenge cup would not have gone to Victoria, but Vancouver would have won by 8 points. So says the News-Advertiser. The five best scores were:

	200	500	600
W. H. Forrest	30	27	29	86
Dr. Bell-Irving	30	27	27	84
H. Collins	31	26	27	84
F. A. Grant	27	29	27	83
D. McKay	28	28	26	82

FOOT RACING.

On Saturday evening Tom Watson of this city and Geo. Irvine, of Vancouver, signed articles for a 300 yard race which will take place at the Victoria Driving Park on Saturday 27th July. The race will be for $50 a side.

WATSON AND M'INTYRE.

The greatest sporting event of the season will take place on August 11th next. Tom Watson of this city, and Peter McIntyre of San Francisco will run in this city for $500 a side and the half mile championship of the Pacific coast. D. R. Cameron, McIntyre's backer, and Tom Watson met on Saturday evening and deposited a forfeit of $100 each. The two men are noted liers and a good race will be witnessed when they come together. The event will also take place at the Driving Park.

RETURNED HOME.

The Minneapolis team left Victoria for their adopted city (Kamloops) on Sunday, and when they shall have reached their destination it will be to listen to the sound of tinkling symbols and an invitation to pay the Grand Pacific a casual visit. The Sentinel will contribute to the Grand Pacific exchequer the price of a brace of Kootenay Stars; the village barber will unloosen to the value of a dozen baths and as many shaves; while the Shuswap Milling Co. will undoubtedly blow itself to the extent of a thousand feet of lumber. There will be a round of revelry in Kamloops, and only that we are prompted by motives of the profoundest delicacy, we would put in immortal type the names of the individuals who will be paralyzed this Monday night. Under circumstances so felicitous as these, 'twere a sin to inter-ject remarks which would be as a fly in the ointment of Kamloop's rejoicing; but to obviate complications in the future, we shall have to inform the victors that they can never play the Amities again, without first having taken the oath of allegiance. The Amities, like our board of trade, are in favor of reciprocity, but this wringing in of two or three "planted Yankees" and as many Donald fellows, who are just as bad as the Yankees, is altogether too transparent. However, what is fair for one is fair for the other, and we charge the enterprising citizens of Kamloops to "potlatch" liberally when the subscription list for the tournament is circulated in September. Money makes the mare go, and nothing so incites a disposition to excel as a fat purse. Kamloops has a good team, and in endeavor will be made to beat it, provided the purse offered is at all commensurate with the drain on the time which must be spent to acquire the necessary degree of perfection.

BASEBALL.

A very woolly game of baseball was that played in the Caledonian society grounds on Saturday between the Kamloops and Amity teams. Both sides with the exception of the batteries appeared to have a day off and errors were numerous and costly. During the game Kamloops totalled up eight, while the Amities had the unprecedented number of eighteen mistakes to their credit when the last man was out in the ninth inning. This bad record was partly due to the players themselves but to a great extent to the wretchedly bad diamond on which they were playing. The work of both pitchers was of a brilliant order, Mills, the local twirler, showing to no disadvantage along side of his much boomed opponent, Marsh, who was freely batted, it was said was not at his best. The two catchers played a good game, Borthwick especially doing some fine work with the willow, in addition to good stopping. The bees throwing was bad. Taken all round the home team played a game many degrees below their usual average and compared with their opponents appeared to lack discipline. Half the play that is in them was not brought out. The following summary will give an idea of the game:

SCORE BY INNINGS.

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Kamloops	0	4	0	1	3	0	0	0	0	8
Amities	0	1	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	3

A Dancing Salvationist.

Captain Grimes, a muscular female officer in the Salvation Army, is making a great hit by her boxing and dancing. After telling her hearers that she has a Christian experience where the rats can't get at it she breaks out in some such ditty as this:—

I'm happy on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday,
I'm happy on Thursday, too,
I'm happy on Friday, Saturday, Sunday,
I'm joyous the whole week through.

Then the band plays and she dances a double shuffle to the great delight of the congregation, for she is a capital performer. She claims that she can shoot the devil more effectively than any mortgage-loved preacher in the country.

THE TIMES' POSITION.

Although it is painful to note that our morning contemporary seems incapable of contemplating the duties of governments except through the spectacles kindly furnished by the Provincial Secretary, the fact that it is now content to splutter within the limits of a paragraph leads us to speculate as to the cause thereof—whether it has come to the conclusion that "brevity is the soul of wit," or whether it is the effect of a desire to conform to the susceptibilities of the autocrats of the breakfast tables of this city, the which are not in sympathy with editorial diatribes. On the whole we are not inclined to favor either of these as the true causes of the Colonist's brevity. Rather, are we of the opinion that the brevity of the Colonist's is the brevity of one who has exhausted his stock-in-trade and who must now deal in remnants. Of a journal thus circumstanced it is hardly fair to take any notice. "The quality of mercy is not strained," and we might without compromising ourselves extend the hand of charity to the weak sister who has been seduced by the blandishments of the subtle JOHN. Nevertheless it is incumbent on us to be fully understood in the matter of this land exchange. However edifying the sight of the government on the fence may be, we do not feel that we can afford to imitate it, and so, to come to the point, we will ask the Colonist whether in regard to the land exchange matter it is speaking for itself or for the government. If the land exchange is simply a "fad" of the Colonist's it would be superfluous for us to express an unqualified opinion. If, however, the Colonist speaks ex cathedra we are bound to endorse it or condemn it, any other attitude being contrary to the general policy of the TIMES. If the Colonist has spoken unofficially, which it claims that it has, it has certainly had the misfortune of but imperfectly detailing its scheme. It has in fact made a very clumsy proposition, while on the other hand if it has spoken officially we have a confirmation of what we have always held, to wit, that the government is incompetent. Why should the land exchange be affected at all? Why go around the field to reach your destination when you may reach it by going across lots? Why concoct a ponderous swap, when by a stroke of the pen Provincial land laws may be made operative on every foot of Dominion land in the province? Why should the Dominion object any more than a simple citizen to the operation of the Provincial land law? The law which a citizen can tolerate the Dominion ought to be able to tolerate, so long as the proceeds of the sale of the land revert to the Dominion. The idea that the Dominion land laws should be operative in British Columbia is as illogical as though Washington Territory should purchase some land of the Province, and in the subsequent management of it claim immunity from the Provincial law. But while we suggest that the Dominion as a land owner in this Province be compelled to administer its possessions in conformance to the Provincial land laws, as the easiest method of settling the vexed question at rest, a method as fair to one party as the other, we will be frank enough to say that an exchange might be made. The modus operandi, however, must be made clear. If the method proposed by the government is a good one we shall endorse it. If it is a misty declaration we shall oppose it. No respectable journal can afford to oppose a palpably wise measure, no matter in whom it originates. But has the government yet promulgated a modus operandi which anybody would wish to pin their faith to? Are we to accept the programme of the Colonist as the sine qua non inseparable from the equitable adjustment of the difficulty? Hardly! We do not propose to set the stamp of our emphatic approval on a transaction involving a scope of country of 10,000 square miles until the Colonist, editorially endorsed, presents a plan of exchange free from ambiguity—and clear to the comprehension of the most unsophisticated citizen. No wonder that in the light of the failure of the government, through its mouthpiece, to present the question in a business light, it has "crayfished," and is no longer visible, except in the attitude of a "disinterested spectator." Probably a more cowardly retrograde movement than is implied in the term "dispassionate spectator" was never undertaken by any government. Its classic phrase "ekook tyee hyiu cultus" is fairly illustrative of the government on the land exchange question, and if the Colonist succeeds in tiding the government over this its latest error, we shall have to accord to that journal the distinction of being the "boss" casuist of this generation.

THE SUPREME COURT.

A rumor is current to the effect that the vacant position on the Supreme Court bench has been offered to Mr. DRAKE, Attorney General DAVIE having declined the position on account of ill-health. We are inclined to think that Mr. DRAKE is the next most eligible candidate. We always understood, however, that in the event of a vacancy, by death or resignation, that the Supreme Court bench would thereafter be restricted to three justices, and that the long-promised county court judges would then be appointed. Certainly, if we are to have two or three new county court judges we do not require four Supreme Court judges, and it appears to us that in departing from the policy as expounded by Sir ALEX. CAMPBELL when he was in British Columbia, the Dominion government is seeking to reward a friend rather than to serve the public interest by facilitating the methods by which justice can be administered. We have not the slightest objection to Mr. DRAKE either personally or professionally. No other member of the bar is better fitted to adorn the high and honorable position, but we submit that a Supreme Court bench of three members, over which Sir MATTHEW B. BEDBIE presides, does not need additional "adornment." The rumor, of course, may be untrue, but the offer to Mr. DAVIE and his declination gives to it the color of probability

CODFISH.

Speaking of reciprocity in regard to fish, it is perfectly plain that Victoria is losing money for the want of it. The schooner Czar recently arrived at San Francisco from Choumagin Island with 127,000 codfish, and this is her second trip this season. So soon as she has discharged her cargo she will again go north for more fish. The Czar belongs to the McCollam Fishing and Trading Company, which has a fishing station at the islands. There are several other San Francisco companies engaged in cod fishing in Behring sea, and the business has all the appearance of being a profitable one. It seems too bad that an industry of this description should be debarred as all through a mistaken idea of public interest. But what lends additional interest to the fisheries question is the fact that sealing, at the best never a certain venture, is growing to be more precarious as a source of investment. Seals are growing so scarce that probably not more than fifty per cent. of the schooners engaged in the business make profitable trips. Besides it is pretty certain that if the United States and England should arrive at an understanding with reference to sealing in the Behring sea, indiscriminate sealing will be prohibited. It is desirable therefore, in view of the money already invested in the sealing fleet, and the probability of the industry becoming circumscribed, that the prolific fishing grounds of this province will become a source of profit and we regard it one of the first duties of our legislators to turn their attention to an adjustment of the matter. Reciprocity in toto we cannot expect, but as British Columbia has what the States has not, we should suppose that some sort of an understanding might be had by which United States ports should be thrown open to our fishing fleet. At all events the interests at stake warrant the effort, but we are afraid, very much afraid, that the gentleman in whose hands the interests of the Dominion and province are now reposing are scarcely broad enough to meet the emergency.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—A perfect specific, Dr. Sage's catarrh remedy.

—Corwigger—My doctor's bill was something enormous. Brown—So you didn't have your pains for nothing?

—Use the safe, pleasant and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.

—Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing these troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

—Politeness is natural to some people, but it takes an excessive polite man to say "Excuse me!" when somebody else steps on his pet corn.

—Hacking coughs lacerate the lungs and bagel consumption; consumption fills our cemeteries. If nipped in the bud with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, the destructive malady is deprived of its power. Pain is also subdued by this benign healing agent—corns, sores, frost-bites, burns and other troubles.

—Mr. J. B. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto, sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with dyspepsia, costiveness, inward piles and kidney complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

—The true philosophy of Medication is not to dose for symptoms, but to root out disease. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic cure, the great blood purifier, has proved itself equal to this task. It is a most searching without being a violent remedy for constipation, biliousness and indigestion. It is so well adapted to the needs and physical temperaments of delicate females as to the more robust sex, and is a fine preventive of disease as well as remedy for it.

—James Cullen, Pool's Island, N. F., writes:—"I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of nose; while not a few of my theumatic neighbors (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

The Power that Moves the World

FIRST ANNUAL TOUR
OF
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

THIS WONDERFUL MASTER OF THE Healing Art has arrived in the city, where he intends to remain for a short time, to cure the sick and afflicted of this vicinity. He comes to us in love with testimonials from the leading citizens of California and the Sound. In San Francisco he has practiced for the past sixteen years, and the authenticated reports of some of his cures seem nothing short of miraculous. He uses no medicine and perforts his cures mostly by the WONDERFUL POWER OF MAGNETISM, the gift of but few men on earth. This is the only method of treatment that restores the life-giving principle, magnetism, to the system, thereby increasing the vital powers and electrifying the nervous system, sending the blood coursing and bounding through the veins, withdrawing and allaying in a few minutes all pains and aches from whatever source.

The diseases which yield most readily to the curative agency of this method, as practiced by McLennan, are: Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Deafness, Eruptions, Green Sickness, Loss of Voice, Wakefulness, Diarrhœa, Dropsy, Fits, Piles, Scrofula, Swellings, Weak Spinal Complaints, Cold Feet and Hands, Biliousness, Contracted Limbs, Diseased Kidneys, Erysipelas, Nervous Depressions, St. Vitus's Dance, Weak and Failing Limbs, Mental Depressions, Diseases of the Brain, Dyspepsia, Diabetes, Stricture, Impotence, Tape Worm, Catarrhal Coughs, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, seminal Weakness, Falling of the Womb, Cancers, Heart Disease, Fever Sores, Lameness, Rheumatism, Swollen Joints, Weak Lungs, Gout, Goitre, Coughs, Diseases of the Eyes, Neuralgia, Tumors, Tetters, Cancers, White Swellings, Leucorrhœa, Ague and Fever, Milk Leg, etc.

No Medicine Given!
No Surgical Operation!
No Pain Whatever!

HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS.

DR. TALMAGE SAYS IT IS A SACRED AND DIVINE ART.

Friendship an Altogether Different Thing from Geniality—Throwing the Mantle of Charity Over the Defects in Others—The Value of Noble Friends.

BROOKLYN, June 30.—At the Tabernacle this morning, after the pastor, the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., had made an exposition of a passage of Scripture, the congregation, led by cornet and organ, sang the hymn beginning:

Now I have found a friend,
Jesus is mine.

Dr. Talmage's subject was "How to Make Friends," and his text Proverbs xviii, 24: "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly." He said:

About the sacred and divine art of making and keeping friends I speak—a subject on which I never heard of any one preaching—and yet God thought it of enough importance to put it in the middle of the Bible, these writings of Solomon, bounded on one side by the popular Psalms of David and on the other by the writings of Isaiah, the greatest of the prophets. It seems all a matter of haphazard how many friends we have, or whether we have any friends at all; but there is nothing accidental about it. There is a law which governs the accretion and dispersion of friendships. They did not "just happen so," any more than the tides just happen to rise or fall, or the sun just happens to rise or set. It is a science, an art, a God given regulation. Tell me how friendly you are to others and I will tell you how friendly others are to you. I do not say you will not have enemies; indeed, the best way to get ardent friends is to have ardent enemies if you get their enmity in doing the right thing. Good men and women will always have enemies because their goodness is a perpetual rebuke to evil; but this antagonism of foes will make more intense the love of your adherents. Your friends will gather closer around you because of the attacks of your assailants. The more your enemies abuse you, the better your neighbors will think of you. The best lands are those that suffered at some juncture when we were especially bombarded. There have been times in my life when unjust assault multiplied my friends, as near as I could calculate, about fifty a minute. You are bound to some people by many cords that neither time nor eternity can break, and I will warrant that many of those cords were twisted by hands malevolent. Human nature was shipwrecked about fifty-nine centuries ago, the captain of that craft one Adam, and his first mate, running the famous cargo aground on a snag in the River Hiddekel; but there was at least one good trait of human nature that waded safely ashore from that shipwreck, and that is the disposition to take the part of those unfairly dealt with. Then it is thoroughly demonstrated that some one is being persecuted, although at the start slanderous tongues were busy enough, defenders finally gather around as thick as honey bees on a trellis of bruised honeysuckle. If, then set upon by the furies, you can have grace enough to keep your mouth shut, and preserve your equipoise, and let others fight your battles, you will find yourself after a while with a whole cordon of allies. Had not the world given to Christ on his arrival at Palestine a very cold shoulder, there would not have been one-half as many angels chanting glory out of the hymn books of the sky bound in black lids of midnight. Had it not been for the heavy and jagged and tortuous cross, Christ would not have been the admired and loved of more people than any being who ever touched foot on either the eastern or western hemisphere. Instead, therefore, of giving up in despair because you have enemies, rejoice in the fact that they rally for you the most helpful and enthusiastic admirers. In other words, there is no virulence, human or diabolic, that can hinder my text from coming true: "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly."

YOUR FRIENDSHIP MUST NOT BE A PRETENSE.

It is my ambition to project, especially upon the young, a thought which may benignly shape their destiny for the here and the hereafter. Before you show yourself friendly you must be friendly. I do not recommend a dramatized geniality. There is such a thing as pretending to be en rapport with others when we are their dire destructants, and fall against them and wish them calamity. Judas covered up his treachery by a resounding kiss, and carcuses may be demonized. Better the mythological Cerberus, the three headed dog of hell, barking at us, than the wolf in sheep's clothing, its brindled hide covered up by deceptive wool, and its deathful howl cadenced into an innocent bleating. Disraeli writes of Lord Manfred, who, after committing many outrages upon the people, seemed suddenly to become friendly, and invited them to a banquet. After most of the course of food had been served he blew a horn, which was in those times a signal for the servants to bring on the dessert, but in this case it was the signal for assassins to enter and slay the guests. His pretended friendliness was a cruel fraud, and there are now people whose smile is a falsehood. Before you begin to show yourself friendly you must be friendly. Get your heart right with God and your and this grace will become easy. You may by your own resolution get your temperamental semblance of this virtue, but the grace of God can sublimely lift you into it. Sailing on the River Thames two vessels ran aground. The owners of one got one hundred horses and pulled on the grounded ship and pulled it to pieces. The owners of the other grounded vessel waited till the tides came in and easily floated the ship out of all trouble. So, we may pull and haul at our grounded human nature, and try to get into better condition; but there is nothing like the oceanic tides of God's uplifting grace to hoist us into this kindliness I am eulogizing. If when under the flash of the Holy Ghost we see our own foibles and defects and depravities, we will be very patient and very easy with others. We will look into their characters for things commendatory and not damatory. If you would rub your own eye a little more vigorously you would see a mote in it, the expulsion of which would keep you so busy you would not have much time to shoulder your broadax and go forth to split up the beam in your neighbor's eye. In a Christian spirit keep on exploring the characters of those you meet, and I am sure you will find something in them delightful and fit for a foundation of friendliness. You invite me to come to your country seat and spend a few days. Thank you! I arrive about noon of a beautiful summer day. What do you do? As soon as I arrive you take me out under the shadow of the great elms. You take me down to the artificial lake, the spotted trout floating in and out among the white pillars of the pond lilies. You take me to the stalls and kennels where you keep your fine stock, and here are the Hereford cattle and the Gordon setters, and the high stepping steeds by pawing and neighing, the only language they can speak, asking for harness or saddle, and a short turn over the road. Then we go back to the house, and you get me in the night light, and show me the Kentias and the magnolias on the wall, and take me into the music room, and show me the bird cages, the canaries in the bay window answering the robins in the tree tops. Thank you! I never enjoyed myself more in the same length of time. Now, I am in a position to tell you what I think in regard to the characters of others, and show the blooms and the music and the bright fountains! No. We say come along and let me show you that man's character. Here, he is growing enamored frog pond, and there's a filthy cellar, and I guide under that hedge there must be a black snake. Come, and let us for an hour or two regale ourselves with the nuisances. Oh, my friends, better cover up the faults and extol the virtues, and this habit once established of universal friendliness will become as easy as it is this morning for a sponge to flood the air with sweetness, as easy as it will be harder on in the season for a quail to whistle up from the grass. When we hear something bad about somebody whom we always supposed to be good, take out your lead pencil and say: "Let me see! Before I accept that baleful story against that man's character, I will take off from it twenty-five per cent, for the habit of exaggeration which belongs to the man who first told the story; then I will take off twenty-five per cent. for the additions which the spirit of gossip in every community has put upon the original story. Then I will take off twenty-five per cent. from the fact that the man may have been put into the humiliation of overpowering temptation. So I have taken off seventy-five per cent. But I have not heard his side of the story at all, and for that reason I take off the remaining twenty-five per cent.? Excuse me, sir, I don't believe a word of it.

DEFECTIVE MAXIM.

But here comes in a defective maxim, as often quoted: "Where there is so much smoke there must be some fire." Look at all the smoke for years around Jenner, the introducer of vaccination; and the smoke around Columbus, the discoverer; and the smoke around Martin Luther, and Savonarola, and Galileo, and Paul, and John, and Christ, and tell me where was the fire! That is one of the Satanic arts to make smoke without fire. Slander, like the world, may be made out of nothing. If the Christian, fair minded, common sensical spirit in regard to others predominated in the world, we should have the millennium in about six weeks, for would not that be lamb and lion, cow and leopard lying down together? Nothing but the grace of God can ever put us into such a habit of mind and heart as that. The whole tendency is in the opposite direction. This is the way the world talks: I put my name on the back of a man's note, and I had to pay it, and I will never again put my name on the back of any man's note. I gave a beggar ten cents, and five minutes after I saw him entering a liquor store to spend it. I will never again give a cent to a beggar. I helped that young man start in business, and lo, after a while, he came and opened a store almost next door to me, and stole my customers. I will never again help a young man start in business. I trusted in what my neighbor promised to do, and he broke his word, and the Psalmist was right before he corrected himself, for "all men are liars." So men become suspicious and saturnine and selfish, and at every additional wrong done them they put another layer on the wall of their exclusiveness, and another bolt to the door that shuts them out from sympathy with the world. They get cheated out of a thousand dollars, or misinterpreted, or disappointed, or betrayed, and higher goes the wall, and faster goes another bolt, not realizing that while they lock others out, they lock themselves in; and some day they wake up to find themselves imprisoned in a dastardly habit. No friends to others, others are no friends to them. There's an island half way between England, Scotland and Ireland, called the Isle of Man, and the sea dash against all sides of it, and I am told that there is no more lovely place than that Isle of Man; but when a man becomes misanthropic in his disposition, and cuts himself off from the main land of the world's sympathies, he is despicable, and all around him is an Atlantic ocean of selfishness. Behold that Isle of Man!

Now, supposing that you have, by a divine regeneration, got right toward God and humanity, and you start out to practice my text: "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly." Fulfill this by all forms of appropriate salutation. Have you noticed that the head is so poised that the easiest thing on earth is to give a nod of recognition? To swing the head from side to side, as when it is wagged in derision, is unnatural and unusual; to throw it back, invites vertigo; but to drop the chin in greeting is accomplished with so little exertion that all day long and every day you might practice it without the least semblance of fatigue. So also the structure of the hand indicates hand shaking; the knuckles not made so that the fingers can turn out, but so made that the fingers can turn in, as in clasping hands; and the thumb divided from and set aloof from the fingers, so that while the fingers take your neighbor's hand on one side, the thumb takes it on the other, and pressed together, all the faculties of the hand give emphasis to the salutation. Five sermons in every healthy hand urge us to hand shaking.

BE KIND TO EVERYBODY.

Besides this, every day when you start out, load yourself up with kind thoughts, kind words, kind expressions and kind greetings. When a man or woman does well, tell him so, tell her so. If you meet some one who is improved in health, and it is demonstrated in girth and color, say: "How well you look!" But if, on the other hand, under the wear and tear of life he appears pale and exhausted, do not introduce sanitary subjects or say anything at all about physical conditions. In the case of improved health, you have by your words given another impulse towards the robust and the jocund; while in the case of the failing health you have arrested the decline by your silence, by which he concludes: "If I were really so badly off, he would have said something about it." We are all, especially those of a nervous temperament, susceptible to kind words and discouraging words. Form a conspiracy against us, and let ten men meet us at certain points on our way over to business and let each one say: "How sick you look!" though we should start out well, after meeting the first and hearing the disparaging salute, we would begin to examine our symptoms. After meeting the second gloomy accosting, we would conclude we did not feel quite as well as usual. After meeting the third, our sensations would be dreadful, and after meeting the fourth, unless we expected a conspiracy, we would go home and go to bed, and the other six pessimists would be a useless surplus of discouragement. My dear sir, my dear madam, what do you mean by going about this world with disheartenments? Is not the supply of gloom and trouble and misfortune enough to meet the demand without your running a factory of pins and spikes? Why should you plant black and blue in the world when God so seldom plants them? Plenty of scarlet colors, plenty of yellow, plenty of green, plenty of pink, but very seldom a plant black or blue. I never saw a black flower, and there's only here and there a blue bell or a violet; but the blue is for the most part reserved for the sky, and we have to look up to see that, and when we look up no color can do us harm. Why not plant along the paths of others the brightnesses instead of the gloomes? Do not prophesy misfortune. If you must be a prophet at all be an Ezekiel and not a Jeremiah. In ancient times prophets who foretold evil were doing right, for they were divinely directed; but the prophets of evil in our time are generally false prophets. Some of our weather wise people are prophesying we shall have a summer of unparalleled scorch. It will not be that at all. I think we are going to have a summer of great harvest and universal health; at any rate I know as much about it as they do. Last fall all the weather prophets agreed in saying we should have a winter of extraordinary severity, blizzard on the heels of blizzard. It was the mildest winter I ever remember to have passed. Indeed, the autumn and the spring almost shorted winter out of the procession. Real troubles have no heralds running ahead of their somber chariots, and no one has any authority in our time to announce their coming. Load yourself up with helpful words and deeds. The hymn once sung in our churches is unfit to be sung, for it says:

We should expect some danger near
Where we possess delight.

In other words, manage to keep miserable all the time. The old song sung at the pianos a quarter of a century ago was right: "Kind words can never die." Such kind words have their nests in kind hearts, and when they are hatched out and take wing they circle round in flights that never cease, and sportsman's gun cannot shoot them, and storms cannot ruffle their wings, and when they cease flight in time lower skies of earth they pass around amid the higher altitudes of heaven. At Baltimore a few days ago I talked into a phonograph. The cylinder containing the words was sent on to Washington, and the next day that cylinder, from another phonographic instrument, when turned, gave back to me the very words I had uttered the day before, and with the same intonations. Scold into a phonograph, and it will scold back. Pour into it complaints, and it will return the complaints. Society and the world and the church, are phonographs. Give them acerbity and rough treatment, and acerbity and rough treatment you will get back. Give them practical friendliness, and they will give back practical friendliness. A father asked his little daughter: "Mary, why is it that everybody loves you?" She answered: "I don't know, unless it is because I love everybody." "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly." We want something like that spirit of sacrifice for others which was seen in the English channel where in the storm a boat containing three men was upset, and all three were in the water struggling for their lives. A boat came to their relief, and a rope was thrown to one of them, and he refused to take it, saying: "First fling it to Tom; he is just ready to go down. I can last some time longer." A man like that, be his station or profession, be he in upper ranks of society or lower ranks, will always have plenty of friends. What a true manward is true Godward. We must be the friends of God if we want him to be our friend. We cannot treat Christ badly all our lives and expect him to treat us lovingly. I was reading of a sea fight, in which Lord Nelson captured a French vessel, and when the French officer offered Lord Nelson his sword, Nelson replied: "First give me your sword, and then give me your hand." Surrender of our resistance to God must precede God's profffer of pardon to us. Repentance before forgiveness. You must give up your rebellious sword before you can get a grasp of the divine hand.

IT IS GOOD TO HAVE GOOD FRIENDSHIP.

Oh, what a glorious state of things to have this friendship of God! Why, we could afford to have all the world against us and all other worlds against us if we had God for us. He could in a minute blot out this universe, and in another minute make a better universe. I have no idea that God tried hard when he made all things. The most brilliant thing known to us is light, and for the creation of that he only used a word of command. As out of a flint the frontiersman strikes a spark, so out of one word God struck the noonday sun. For the making of the present universe I do not read that God lifted so much as a finger. The Bible frequently speaks of God's hand, and God's arm, and God's shoulder, and God's foot; then suppose he should put hand and arm and shoulder and foot to utmost tension, what could he not make! That God, of such demonstrated and undemonstrated strength, you may have for your present and everlasting friend. But a stately and reticent friend, hard to get at, but as approachable as a country mansion on a summer day when all the doors and windows are wide open. Christ said: "I am the door." And he is a wide door, a high door, a palace door, an always open door. My four-year-old child got lost, and did not cry until hours after when her mother came home, and then she burst into weeping, and some of the domestics, not understanding human nature, said to her: "Why did you not cry before?" She answered: "There was no one to cry to." Now I have to tell you that while human sympathy may be absent, divine sympathy is always accessible. Give God your love and get his love; your service and secure his help; your repentance and have his pardon. God a friend! Why, that means all your wounds medicated, all your sorrows soothed, and if some sudden catastrophe should hurl you out of earth it would only hurl you into heaven. If God is your friend, you cannot go out of the world too quickly or suddenly, so far as your own happiness is concerned. There were two Christians last Tuesday who entered heaven; the one was standing at a window in perfect health watching the shower, and the lightning instantly slew him; but the lightning did not flash down the sky as swiftly as his spirit flashed upward. The Christian man who died on the same day next door had been for a year or two failing in health, and for the last three months had suffered from a disease that made the nights sleepless and the days an anguish. Do you not really think that the case of the one who went instantly was more desirable than the one who suffered the shining gate through a long aisle of insomnia and congestion? In the one case, it was like your standing weary at a door, knocking and waiting, and wondering if it will ever open, and knocking and waiting again; while in the other case, it was a swinging open of the door at the first touch of your knuckle. Give your friendship to God, and have God's friendship for you, and even the worst accident will be a victory.

HUMAN FRIENDSHIP REFRESHING.

How refreshing is human friendship, and true friends, what priceless treasure! When sickness comes, and trouble comes, and death comes, we send for our friends first of all, and their appearance in our doorway in any crisis is re-enforcement, and when they have entered we say: "Now it is all right!" Oh, what would we do without friends, personal friends, business friends, family friends? But we want something mightier than human friendship in the great exigencies. When Jonathan Edwards in his final hour had given the last goodby to all his earthly friends, he turned on his pillow and closed his eyes confidently saying: "Now where is Jesus of Nazareth, my true and never failing friend?" Yes, I admire human friendship as seen in the case of David and Jonathan, of Paul and Onesiphorus, of Herder and Goethe, of Goldsmith and Reynolds, of Beaumont and Fletcher, of Cowley and Hervey, of Erasmus and Thomas More, of Lessing and Mendelssohn, of Lady Churchill and Princess Anne, of Orestes and Pylades, each resenting that himself might take the point of the dagger, so the other might be spared; or Damonides and Pythias, who locked their shields in battle determined to die together; but the greatest, the mightiest, the tenderest friendship in all the universe is the friendship between Jesus Christ and a believing soul. Yet after all I have said I feel I have only done what James Marshall, the miner, did in 1848, in California, before its gold mines were known. He reached in and put upon the table of his employer, Capt. Sutton, a thimbleful of gold dust. "Where did you get that?" said his employer. The reply was: "I got it this morning from a mill race, from which the water had been drawn off." But that gold dust, which could have been taken up between the finger and the thumb, was the prophecy and specimen that revealed California's wealth to all nations. And today I have only put before you a specimen of the value of divine friendship, only a thimbleful of those inexhaustible and infinite, though all time and all eternity go on with the exploration.

A BY-LAW

For Raising Municipal Revenue.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE MAYOR AND Council of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as follows:

1. This By-Law may be cited as "The Revenue By-Law, 1889."

2. The "Interpretation By-Law" applies to this By-Law.

3. From and after the passage of this By-Law the general municipal rate of the City shall be raised, levied and collected from the sources hereinafter mentioned, namely:

[a] Taxes upon real estate and improvements thereon;

[b] Licenses;

[c] Road Tax;

[d] Dog Tax;

[e] Taxes upon such personal property as is not the subject of taxation for provincial purposes, and

[f] Taxes on clubs.

4. There shall be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all the real property and improvements on real property mentioned in the assessment roll for the time being in force in the City of Victoria an equal rate of 7-10 of one per cent on the assessed value thereof as appears by said roll.

5. The aforesaid taxes shall be due and payable by the person or persons liable for the same to the Collector of the said Corporation at his office in the City Council chambers in the City of Victoria on the 30th day of November, in the year 1889, and on the same day of the month of November in each other year.

6. Every person using or carrying on within the limits of the Corporation of the said City any of the trades, occupations, professions or business mentioned in Schedule "A" hereto particularly described, shall take out a periodical license for each place in the said Schedule set out, and shall pay therefor such periodical sum, as is therein specified, which said sums shall respectively be paid in advance to and for the use of the Corporation of the City of Victoria and their successors.

7. Every person shall use, exercise, carry on or exercise any trade, occupation, profession or business in the said Schedule "A" described or named without having taken out and granted to him, her or them a license in that behalf. The licenses to be granted as aforesaid may be in the form of Schedule "B" hereto, and the same are to be granted so as to terminate on the 30th June and 31st December, and no proportionate reduction shall be made on account of any person commencing business.

8. ROAD TAX. In addition to the annual rate on the property comprised in the assessment roll and to the amounts to be levied and collected by means of licenses for using or following the several trades, occupations or professions specified by law in that behalf, every male person between the ages of twenty-one and sixty residing or living or personally engaged or employed in any business or occupation in the City for at least ninety days shall on demand pay to the Collector of the City at his office at the City Hall for the use of the Corporation the annual sum of two dollars ($2.00) by way of Road Tax.

Provided always that any person (whether resident or not) paying the said tax, who is assessed on the municipal roll for Real Estate Tax shall be entitled to have the amount so paid applied on or towards payment of any real estate tax for the time being owing by him.

9. Every person who owns or for the space of one month harbors or possesses any dog shall for each such dog, if running at large, pay to the Collector of the City for the use of the Corporation an annual tax or sum of two dollars.

10. The penalties and procedure for enforcing section 6 of this By-Law and the Schedule referred to therein shall be those contained in Sections 171 and 172 of the Municipal Act, 1888.

In all other cases of infraction of this By-Law the penalties and procedure shall be those mentioned in Sections 165 and 168 of the said Municipal Act.

11. So much of every By-Law which relates to revenue as is anywise conflicts with or is inconsistent with the provisions of this By-Law is hereby repealed so far as is necessary to give full force and effect to this By-Law and no further.

Passed the Municipal Council, this 15th day of May, A. D. 1889.

Reconsidered and finally passed the Council this 30th day of June, A. D. 1889.

[L. S.] JOHN GRANT,
Mayor.

SCHEDULE "A."

1. Each person who vends spirituous liquors by retail at any house or place within the limits of the City of Victoria, or vends fermented liquors by retail at any house or place within the limits of the City of Victoria (other than a restaurant in respect of which he holds a license for the sale of beer, porter or wines with meals and not otherwise) for each house where such vending is carried on $100 for every six months.

2. Each person not having a license to vend by retail as mentioned in section one of this Schedule vending, bartering or trafficing by retail in fermented spirituous or other liquors in a shop, store or place other than an inn, saloon, ale or beer house or other house of public entertainment in quantities of not less than a reputed pint bottle at any one time to any one person and at the time of sale wholly removes and takes away the liquor in quantities of not less than a reputed pint bottle, for each house or place where such vending is carried on $75 for every six months.

3. Each person not having a retail license to vend as mentioned in sections one and two of this Schedule and vending spirituous or fermented liquors by wholesale, that is to say in quantities of not less than two gallons at any one time, at any house or place within the City limits other than any house or place in respect of which he holds a license to sell such liquors by retail, for each house or place where such vending is carried on $50 for every six months.

4. Every person who keeps a restaurant and supplies beer or porter or wines with meals and not otherwise, for each such restaurant where such vending is carried on other than any restaurant in respect of which he holds a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by retail $50 for every six months.

5. Each person keeping a saloon or building where a billiard table is used for hire or profit, $5 for each table for every six months.

6. Each person keeping a bowling alley or rifle gallery, $5 for every six months.

7. Each person selling opium (except chemists and druggists using the same in preparation of prescriptions of medical practitioners), $250 for every six months.

8. Each person who smokes opium, $5 for every six months.

9. Each person carrying on the business of a wholesale, or of a wholesale and retail, merchant or trader, $50 for every six months.

Every person who either on his own behalf or as agent for another or others, solicits or takes orders for goods, wares or merchandise, to be supplied or furnished by any person or firm doing business outside of the Province, and not having a permanent and licensed place of business within the Province, $10 for every six months.

10. Every retail trader $5 for every six months.

The licenses mentioned in sections 9 and 10 of this schedule enable the person paying the same to change his place of business at pleasure, but not to carry on business at two places at the same time under one license.

11. Every hawker or pedler, $10 for every six months.

12. Every person who keeps or carries on a public wash-house or laundry, $2 for every six months.

13. Every person who carries on the business of a pawnbroker, $125 for every six months.

14. Each person or persons the owner or owners of cabs, hackes, carts, wagons, carriages, omnibuses or other vehicles, kept for hire, $12.50 for every six months for each vehicle. Provided, that no person or company holding a license under this section shall be liable at the same time to take out or pay for a license in respect of the livery stable at which the vehicle mentioned in such license is kept.

15. Every livery stable keeper, $10 for every six months.

16. Every person owning a pack train of more than six animals, freight wagon, stage coach or omnibus used in transporting goods for profit or hire a distance beyond ten miles from the City of Victoria, $5 for every six months.

17. Each person owning a pack train of less than six animals, dray, wagon or omnibus used in transporting goods and passengers for hire or profit within a distance of ten miles from the City of Victoria $2.50 for every six months.

18. Every person carrying on, on his own account, the business of a banker at one place of business, $400 for every twelve months, and for each other place of business $100 for every twelve months.

19. Each person practicing as a barrister or solicitor, $12.50 for every six months.

20. Each person (other than a barrister or solicitor who has taken out a license to practice as such) following the occupation of a conveyancer or land agent or both, $12.50 for every six months.

21. Each auctioneer (not being a government officer selling by auction government property, or sheriff or sheriff's officer, or bailiff selling lands, goods or chattels taken in execution or for the satisfaction of rent or taxes) in addition to any other license before mentioned $50 for every six months.

22. Every person who exhibits a public circus or menagerie, $50 for each exhibition.

23. Every person following within the Municipality of the City of Victoria any trade, occupation or calling not hereinbefore enumerated or who enters into any contract or agreement to perform any work or furnish any material, $5 for every six months. Provided always that no person employed as a journeyman or for wages only and not employing other persons or having a regular place of business shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

TAKES RISKS ON THE CASH OR MUTUAL PLANS.

As this is a Home Company, organized by British Columbians for the two-fold purpose of giving cheap insurance and keeping the money in this Province, it commends itself to the support of every insurer desiring the prosperity of this country.

In Ontario, the system of insurance, which is similar to that adopted by this Company, has been in highly successful operation for the past fifty years, and it has proved to be a great advantage to every insurer in it, by reducing the cost of insurance, and it is estimated that now three-fourths of the insurance effected in Ontario is carried by mutual companies.

THE KARLUK FLOATED

At High Tide on Saturday Night—The Vessel Floats Safely.

At 10 o'clock Saturday night, at high tide, the steamer Karluk was extricated from her perilous position on the sand heads of the Fraser with the aid of the steamer Yosemite. To effect the vessel's release from her enforced position, about 60 tons of coal were removed from her hold. When last seen she was making for Cowichan Gap, bound, presumably, for Nanaimo to enter the "natural dry-dock" there with a view of ascertaining the extent of damage sustained.

The injuries, if any of consequence, are in the unfortunate steamer's bow. Her position on the sand heads was bow on the sand and stern in deep water. She had a list to starboard and had been strained that in consequence she was taking in water.

Mine Accident.

A serious accident occurred in No. 3 mine, Nanaimo, on Saturday. Wilkinson Richards, boss pusher in that mine, while attending to the cage, which had stuck in the shaft, was jerked from his position and doubled up between the cage and the shaft and his back was broken. He was conveyed to the hospital.

The Love that Lives.

"Youth fades, love droops, the leaves of friendship fall—
A mother's secret hope outlives them all."

She will not believe her dimpled darling must die. The baby eyes look to her for help—and there is help. Hasten to the nearest druggist and procure Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and your child may be restored, for it cures consumption, which is only scrofula of the lungs, if taken in time, as readily as it cures scrofula affecting other parts and organs. Don't delay.

Hot Weather.

This has been the hottest day of the year in Victoria. At 11:30 the mercury stood at 82 degrees in the shade. At 1 o'clock it recorded 90 degrees in the sun. At 2 o'clock it was 85 degrees in the shade.

Nanaimo Notes.

The fine new theatre which is being erected in this city is rising rapidly, the brick work of the third storey being nearly completed.

The Odd Fellows are contemplating the building of a fine hall.

Schiedmayer & Soehne Pianos.

We have just received a consignment of the above pianos direct from the factory. These are the best instruments made in Germany, and are without doubt the best German pianos ever imported into this country. M. W. Waitt & Co. *

For the South.

The Mexico sailed at 1 o'clock this afternoon for San Francisco with the following passengers from this port: A. Dunsmuir, H. Simons, Miss Cama, Mrs. M. N. Varich, W. W. Anderson, Miss S. Hart, Delbenderfield, G. A. Rand, Chas. Brand, Miss E. Anderson and Lansing Lewis and wife.

Salmon Shipments.

One hundred cases of Phœnix brand of canned salmon, put up by English & Co., Fraser River, arrived down on Saturday last.

Four hundred cases of salmon from the British American Packing Co., Skeena River, are now lying at the outer wharf. With the addition of six hundred more cases, the whole will be shipped to Australia. One thousand cases of the above mentioned cannery's pack have already been shipped to Australia.

Severe Frosts.

A private letter received in this city, says the Free Press, stated that severe frosts visited Calgary and other points in Alberta Territory, on the C.P.R., destroying all the crops. The settlers are disheartened and many have "drawn stakes" and are coming to the more equable climate of Vancouver Island, Nanaimo in particular.

Cod Banks Discovered.

Capt. Bell, of the American steamer A. B. Field, reports having discovered a cod bank off the Oregon coast, about 70 miles south of the Columbia river. The cod were of excellent quality and found in large numbers. This is the first cod bank discovered south of Vancouver Island, and in fact it is said the true cod has never before been found south of Alaska.

Hon. Norquay's Death.

A number of the personal friends, at Vancouver, of the late Hon. John Norquay, ex-Premier of Manitoba, learning of his sudden demise, on Saturday, resolved themselves in a meeting with ex-Mayor McLean in the chair. It was decided to call a public meeting of all former Manitobans this evening for the purpose of passing resolutions of condolence to the bereaved family.

The Last Rites.

The funeral of the late Alice Gregg, beloved wife of A. E. Gregg, occurred Sunday afternoon from the residence of her parents, 189 Chatham street. Divine services for the dead were read at the Reformed Episcopal church by the Rev. Bishop Cridge. A very large concourse of friends of the deceased lady were in attendance at the church and cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. Borde, A. Elliott, F. Gonge, C. J. Wagner, C. Jennings, J. Stewart, W. Dunstan and G. H. Maynard.

Reticent Surveyors.

A surveying party of six arrived Saturday evening at Vancouver from Whatcom, in charge of Mr. S. J. Sheets, a well known pioneer of the coast, and an old Cariboo miner. They leave to-day by the Atlantic express for Fort Hope, where they will take the old trail to the head of the Skagit river south of the boundary line. They will make an exploratory survey of the projected railway from Whatcom to Spokane Falls, with an ultimate terminus in British Columbia. Mr. Sheets was seen by a News-Advertiser representative, but had very little to say in regard to the matter. He thinks British Columbia is the richest mineral country in the world and thinks a railroad through to Alaska is practicable, and one of the possibilities of the future.

Teacher's Examination

The annual examination of candidates for certificates to teach in the public schools of the province commenced in the legislative assembly building this morning. One hundred and sixteen are writing.

The examination is under the supervision of Mr. Pope, superintendent of education, assisted by Messrs. Anderson and Walker, members of the board. Mr. H. Stramberg B. A., Mr. J. P. McLeod B. A., and Messrs Bannerman and Nicholson have been appointed to look after the ward. The proceedings will be brought to a close on Friday, the 19th inst.

The Rev. Donald Fraser M. A., and D. Wilson B. A., secretary of the board have gone to Kamloops to conduct the examination there.

Malaland Ferry Scheme.

The public meeting called by the promoters of the Victoria-Saanich and New Westminster railway for Thursday evening should be attended by everyone who desires to advance the interests of this city. The scheme is without doubt a feasible one and would afford a means of communication with the mainland that must always be of immense value whether other schemes are carried out or not. It is claimed that the run will be made between Victoria and New Westminster in two and a half hours, which it is easy to see would be a great improvement on the present arrangement. Everyone would do well to attend the meeting and hear what the promoters have to say about the project and how they propose to raise the money to carry it out. The boom which construction at both ends would give to business just now would be very great.

A Third Steamer if Necessary.

The steamer Idaho arrived on Saturday night from Portland, being then overdue. On account of breaking a fan of her propeller she did not leave the Columbia river until an investigation was made, hence the delay. The O. R. & N. Co., as already announced, have chartered the steamer Michigan, a fine iron propeller, to run in connection with the Idaho on this route, and is due here to-morrow. The Idaho, after coaling at Nanaimo, will go direct to Portland and take her regular schedule. This will make one boat every five days. The O. R. & N. Co. state that if they are encouraged by our people in the future with the past they will put another steamer on the route, making it a first class service. Till we have railroad connection by ferry, which we are bound to get, every encouragement should be given to these steamboat lines which are doing so much excellent facilities for trade.

Victoria Rifle Association.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a rifle association was held at Mr. J. L. Beckwith's rooms last Saturday evening. On motion, Sergt. A. G. Sargison was appointed chairman, and Sergt. Williams secretary. Moved, seconded and carried, that the meeting resolve itself into a rifle association, to be called "The Victoria Rifle Association." It was decided to adopt the rules and regulations of the Dominion Rifle Association as regards shooting, etc., and resolved to place the entrance fee at $2.50, and membership fee at $1. The election of officers resulted in Lieut.-Col. Wolfenden being unanimously chosen president; Capt. P. Æ. Irving, vice-president; R. Williams, secretary; J. L. Beckwith, treasurer, and the following executive committee: Messrs. F. DeVeulle, J. C. Cornish, W. R. Winsby, F. R. Sargison and J. C. Newbury. Another meeting will be held at 8 p.m. to-morrow night.

THE VICTORIA PULPIT.

Rev. J. E. Starr on the Shortcomings of the City.

The services in Pandora Street Methodist church were conducted both morning and evening on Sunday by Rev. J. E. Starr. The attention paid to the discourse in the morning was equalled only by that paid to the one in the evening, founded on the text "Is that thou art a comfort to them." Though a continuation of the discourses recently delivered on the sins of the city, it was one in which the subject was decidedly amplified but not in the least diluted. It was full of fire and energy and thoughts calculated to awaken the citizens of the city from a state of lethargy. After describing the vicious state of society existing at a certain period of the world's history, in the city of Jerusalem—how instead of frowning upon the evils surrounding it, she acted the part of the "Devil's attorney," and countenanced those evils—the reverend gentleman said in substance: "The same state of things exists in this city. Many are acting the part of the devil's attorney. Contaminated by the various evils existing in the city, many of our citizens are going down and down to eternal perdition. These evils touch the homes, contaminate the young, and yet in the whole of this city you cannot find a citizen who dares come forward and say that these things must be put a stop to. There are men in whose hearts there is a conviction that this should be done, and who strive at the polls to do what they can towards bringing about that result, but in influential circles, in circles where men can do effective work, where is the man who has the moral courage to come forward and say that these evils must be stopped? One of the first pleas put forward by the Devil's attorney is that it would be better to keep silent, better not say anything. "Since commencing these discourses, I have received several letters," said the preacher, among them an anonymous one, to the effect that I should not have referred to the social evil, as it was sure to arouse suspicion in domestic circles. Evidently there was ground for suspicion. Now and then old toughs are brought up in the police court for being drunk and disorderly, but I notice very few, of what they call the more influential classes, are called upon to give an account of their ways in the police court. This class of course must be screened. This I judge only by the reports of police court cases. Going home of an evening, I sometimes meet on the streets, some of these so-called respectable people walking as if the whole sidewalk was too narrow for them, and using such language as is seldom heard at prayer meetings, and looking over the police court reports next day I could find only such names as Mike Rafferty, Indian Jim, or something of the sort, and I would almost begin to think that perhaps I was mistaken about the other class altogether (smiles). Such is the tendency to screen and cover up. Then that by-law for remunerating the aldermen. If my memory serves me aright, only a short letter or an editorial squib was written about it. Remunerating the aldermen! What! Is civism dead in this city? The mayor of the city owing to the responsibility involved in his position, I believe ought to be a salaried officer. But the aldermen! If that by-law passes its third reading next Wednesday, you will have a premium on mediocrity if not worthlessness. Is there no honor in being an alderman. Sixty cents a day. You couldn't buy me to work for such pay. What is it at the bottom of it all, but the tendency to cover up and to screen, and doubtless self-interest. Fearing that the people may be down on them. These men die, and the papers say they hadn't an enemy. Something may be said of a corn cobs (laughter). Then there is the fear that it might strike across their business interests. Sometimes they would like to oppose these evils, but then comes the thought that it might hurt their business. Self interest! Something has happened in the city, and a man approaches you with a $10 bill, and tells you to keep your mouth shut as tight as your hand is on that bill, and you do so. Isn't that self-interest? yes, and bribery, too! Then side by side of this self-interest is the folly of believing that it is charitable to cover up and screen these things. They say charity covers a multitude of sins. Charity, is it to pass unrelentingly by scores and hundreds of young men ruined and homes destroyed? You cannot find such ideas of charity in the teachings of Christ. This plea that wickedness should not be exposed is utterly worthless. If any of you are acting the part of the Devil's attorney, I say, before Almighty God, you are guilty. Another plea put forward by the Devil's attorney is that you should use moral suasion. They say the pulpit should persuade men. I say it is for the pulpit to build up a noble manhood. Should not the pulpit seek to extinguish these evils? Besides the citizens of a town are so many units forming the community of that town, and the prosperity of any city depends on the social units of that city. These evils do hurt the individual, therefore the citizens ought to help each other. They ought to make every road to licentiousness and vice and infamy just as difficult as possible, and the road to virtue just as easy as possible. When the city of Victoria has discharged that duty to her citizens, then there is some chance for moral suasion. Besides, the tendency is to cajole and sneer at anyone taking a stand against these evils. The way to honor in this city is made just as difficult as possible. You don't mean to say you can legislate these people into purity, they say. No, no one of my common sense ever said you could. But you can legislate these evils out. In palliation of the evils in the city people say this is a very moral and orderly city. It compares favorably with any city on the coast, etc. No statement has been made in my hearing that the city is not orderly, and certainly I have never said it. There is nothing so orderly as a corpse, is there? A corpse is so orderly that it never stirs. I freely confess I should like to see a few signs of life. Are the legislators alive? Will you please tell me where are the laws in this city restraining indecency and Sabbath desecration? The chief of police in his report, said there are none. And yet people talk of morality. Talk of death and stagnation, if you please, but not morality. You say if there are such laws and you enforce them, there would be a row. Let there be a row. There would at any rate be life. Can't be done? Other cities have done it. There has been a time when lotteries were allowed, and lottery is allowed now in this city. In New York it has been stopped. In another large city gambling halls have been stopped. Will I ever forget the shouts at Shaftesbury Hall when the party for reform and civic purity achieved its great victory in the capital of Ontario! The year previous W. H. Howland had been elected mayor—it was said—by a snap victory. Well, the following year the whiskey party put forth tremendous efforts. With the exception of those belonging to one livery stable, all the hacks were engaged by that party to carry voters to the polls. In Shaftesbury Hall after the election, a crowd of above three thousand gathered under its roof, and as the returns came rolling in showing a majority of 1,000; then 1,500, then 2,000, some one in the back part of the hall started "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow," and others with tears rolling down their cheeks as the vast multitude was slowly dispersing, rolled out and rolled on "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

A Family Quarrel.

One of our well known citizens went home to lunch to-day, at noon, and made a few remarks to his wife about the meat being tainted and the butter being greasy. She said she could not help it this hot weather. One word led to another and peace was only restored when he promised to get a refrigerator from McLennan & McFeely, Yates streets. *

Floating Ice.

When steaming through Glacier bay, about sixty miles this side of Sitka, the Ancon on her last trip encountered miles and miles of drift ice, which broke the paddles of her side wheels and materially checked her speed. She floated slowly along for a whole day with the packed ice that stretched away in every direction as far as the eye could reach. These drifts came off the Muir and Pacific glaciers, in the mountain ranges of that region.

Death of Mr. D. A. McTavish.

New York, July 8—Duncan A. McTavish, banker, 52 Wall street, died this morning at the Park Avenue hotel where he made his home, aged 72.

The above despatch was received at THE TIMES office to-day at noon. The Mr. McTavish referred to is the father of Mr. G. A. McTavish and Mrs. Charles Vernon of this city. Mrs. McTavish, wife of the deceased being also a resident of Victoria. Mr. McTavish for some thirteen or fourteen years has held a responsible position in connection with the Bank of British North America, holding the position of first agent in New York. Mr. G. A. McTavish is at present in New York having been called to the bedside of his father ten days ago.

Mud Bay Dyke.

A company has been organized known as the Delta Dyking and Draining Co., under the Company's Act, Ottawa. Their scheme is, says the Columbian, to reclaim the whole of the foreshore or tidal flats on Boundary and Mud Bays, from the boundary line at Point Roberts to Blackie's Spit, Mud Bay, taking in, approximately, a strip of between seven and eight miles in length and from one and a half to two miles in width, and comprising between eight and ten thousand acres, to be absolutely recovered from the sea, the land being of the richest. The dyke, or more properly sea wall, will have a width on top of about sixteen feet, being proportionately larger at the base, thus forming a first-class road. All section lines running south from the road going to Ladner's Landing, and intersecting the main dyke, will also be public roads or highways, being produced to the sea wall at the same height and width, and the large parallel ditches on the section lines will serve materially to drain the reclaimed land. The benefits of the scheme do not stop with the lands reclaimed, but the adjacent lands and roads are greatly advantaged thereby, and all that the promoters of the enterprise require as remuneration, from the Dominion government, for the work undertaken, is a grant of the lands to be recovered.
